

I,m a profesional truck driver the trafic and weather reports on xm radio are more accurate and timely instead of one report every 20 minutes you get accurate reports when you need themwitch makes my job much eaiser as for the local radio stations claim to lost advertising dollars being i,m from out of town i wouldnt support their addvertisers anyway there forth xm is not hurting the local station anywayplease leave xm alone and let them continue to offer these services that help keep america moving smothly